

Hello, Friends --

Please disregard this email if you already know for whom you will be voting in the Nov. 3 general election; if you are still undecided, I offer you my humble suggestions. In either case, please remember that LOCAL RACES ARE EXCEEDINGLY IMPORTANT, so do vote all the way down the ticket.

Everyone will receive a Vote-By-Mail ballot beginning on Oct. 5; they do not require postage but must be POSTMARKED by Nov. 3 in order to be counted, so get them in promptly. They can also be dropped off in any of the over 100 Ballot Drop Boxes around the county or, from Oct. 30 – Nov. 3, at one of the 200 Vote Centers where you can also register to vote. Finally, you can deliver your ballot directly to the offices of the OC Registrar of Voters at 1300 South Grand Ave., Santa Ana, 92705. For more information on any of these options, check the OC ROV website at <http://www.ocvote.com/>.

I've compiled a list with input from individuals I respect who are in the know; I've also consulted my favorite source: the conservative voter guides, two of which can be found here: <http://nancypicks.com/vote-picks> and <https://robynordell.com/countyorange.aspx> (my philosophy: let them do all the work and then vote the opposite way!). For most local races, I've only included those in which I either know the candidates or have had them recommended to me by reliable sources.

You can find my suggestions below. Please advise if you have information about any of these candidates and/or issues that might warrant a reevaluation or if you know of additional candidates who deserve support. If you desperately need an answer on a race that is not included here, let me know and I will try to get an informed opinion.

HAPPY VOTING!

Peace,
Felicity
